The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to firearm safety and harassment prevention orders.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 258E of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 4 the following 3 sections:-

3 Section 4A. Upon issuance of a temporary or emergency order under section five or six 4 of this chapter, the court shall, if the plaintiff demonstrates a substantial likelihood of immediate 5 danger of harassment, order the immediate suspension and surrender of any license to carry 6 firearms and or firearms identification card which the defendant may hold and order the 7 defendant to surrender all firearms, rifles, shotguns, machine guns and ammunition which he 8 then controls, owns or possesses in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any 9 license to carry firearms or firearms identification cards which the defendant may hold shall be 10 surrendered to the appropriate law enforcement officials in accordance with the provisions of this

11 chapter and, said law enforcement official may store, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such 12 weapon in accordance with the provisions of section 129D of chapter 140; provided however, 13 that nothing herein shall authorize the transfer of any weapons surrendered by the defendant to 14 anyone other than a licensed dealer. Notice of such suspension and ordered surrender shall be 15 appended to the copy of harassment prevention order served on the defendant pursuant to section 16 nine. Law enforcement officials, upon the service of said orders, shall immediately take 17 possession of all firearms, rifles, shotguns, machine guns, ammunition, any license to carry 18 firearms and any firearms identification cards in the control, ownership, or possession of said 19 defendant. Any violation of such orders shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five 20 thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than two and one-half years in a house of 21 correction, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any defendant aggrieved by an order of 22 surrender or suspension as described in the first sentence of this section may petition the court
23 which issued such suspension or surrender order for a review of such action and such petition 24 shall be heard no later than ten court business days after the receipt of the notice of the petition
25 by the court. If said license to carry firearms or firearms identification card has been suspended 26 upon the issuance of an order issued pursuant to section five or six, said petition may be heard 27 contemporaneously with the hearing specified in the second sentence of the second paragraph of 28 section five. Upon the filing of an affidavit by the defendant that a firearm, rifle, shotgun, 29 machine gun or ammunition is required in the performance of the defendant's employment, and 30 upon a request for an expedited hearing, the court shall order said hearing within two business
31 days of receipt of such affidavit and request but only on the issue of surrender and suspension 32 pursuant to this section.

33 Section 4B. Upon the continuation or modification of an order issued pursuant to section 34 5 or upon petition for review as described in section 4A, the court shall also order or continue to 35 order the immediate suspension and surrender of a defendant's license to carry firearms and 36 firearms identification card and the surrender of all firearms, rifles, shotguns, machine guns or 37 ammunition which such defendant then controls, owns or possesses if the court makes a 38 determination that the return of such license to carry and firearm identification card or firearms, 39 rifles, shotguns, machine guns or ammunition presents a likelihood of harassment to the plaintiff.
40 A suspension and surrender order issued pursuant to this section shall continue so long as the 41 restraining order to which it relates is in effect; and, any law enforcement official to whom such 42 weapon is surrendered may store, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such weapon in 43 accordance with the provisions of section 129D of chapter 140; provided, however, that nothing 44 herein shall authorize the transfer of any weapons surrendered by the defendant to anyone other 45 than a licensed dealer. Any violation of such order shall be punishable by a fine of not more than 46 $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two and one-half years in a house of correction or 47 by both such fine and imprisonment.

48 Section 4C. Upon an order for suspension or surrender issued pursuant to sections 4A or 49 4B, the court shall transmit a report containing the defendant's name and identifying information 50 and a statement describing the defendant's alleged conduct and relationship to the plaintiff to the 51 department of criminal justice information services. Upon the expiration, cancellation or 52 revocation of the order, the court shall transmit a report containing the defendant's name and 53 identifying information, a statement describing the defendant's alleged conduct and relationship 54 to the plaintiff and an explanation that the order is no longer current or valid to the department of 55 criminal justice information services who shall transmit the report, pursuant to paragraph (h) of 56 section 167A of chapter 6, to the attorney general of the United States to be included in the 57 National Instant Criminal Background Check System.
