Sec. 2151.353. (A) If a child is adjudicated an abused, 101 neglected, or dependent child, the court may make any of the 102 following orders of disposition: 103

(1) Place the child in protective supervision; 104

(2) Commit the child to the temporary custody of a public 105 children services agency, a private child placing agency, either 106 parent, a relative residing within or outside the state, or a 107 probation officer for placement in a certified foster home, or 108 in any other home approved by the court; 109

(3) Award legal custody of the child to either parent or 110 to any other person who, prior to the dispositional hearing, 111 files a motion requesting legal custody of the child or is 112 identified as a proposed legal custodian in a complaint or 113 motion filed prior to the dispositional hearing by any party to 114 the proceedings. A person identified in a complaint or motion 115 filed by a party to the proceedings as a proposed legal 116 custodian shall be awarded legal custody of the child only if 117 the person identified signs a statement of understanding for 118 legal custody that contains at least the following provisions: 119

(a) That it is the intent of the person to become the 120 legal custodian of the child and the person is able to assume 121 legal responsibility for the care and supervision of the child; 122

(b) That the person understands that legal custody of the 123 child in question is intended to be permanent in nature and that 124 the person will be responsible as the custodian for the child 125 until the child reaches the age of majority. Responsibility as 126 custodian for the child shall continue beyond the age of 127 majority if, at the time the child reaches the age of majority, 128 the child is pursuing a diploma granted by the board of 129 education or other governing authority, successful completion of 130 the curriculum of any high school, successful completion of an 131 individualized education program developed for the student by 132 any high school, or an age and schooling certificate. 133 Responsibility beyond the age of majority shall terminate when 134 the child ceases to continuously pursue such an education, 135 completes such an education, or is excused from such an 136 education under standards adopted by the state board of 137 education, whichever occurs first. 138

(c) That the parents of the child have residual parental 139 rights, privileges, and responsibilities, including, but not 140 limited to, the privilege of reasonable visitation, consent to 141 adoption, the privilege to determine the child's religious 142 affiliation, and the responsibility for support; 143 present in court for the dispositional hearing in order to 145 affirm the person's intention to become legal custodian, to 146 affirm that the person understands the effect of the 147 custodianship before the court, and to answer any questions that 148 the court or any parties to the case may have. 149

(4) Commit the child to the permanent custody of a public 150 children services agency or private child placing agency, if the 151 court determines in accordance with division (E) of section 152 2151.414 of the Revised Code that the child cannot be placed 153 with one of the child's parents within a reasonable time or 154 should not be placed with either parent and determines in 155 accordance with division (D) (1) of section 2151.414 of the 156 Revised Code that the permanent commitment is in the best 157 interest of the child. If the court grants permanent custody 158 under this division, the court, upon the request of any party, 159 shall file a written opinion setting forth its findings of fact 160 and conclusions of law in relation to the proceeding. 161

(5) Place the child in a planned permanent living 162 arrangement with a public children services agency or private 163 child placing agency, if a public children services agency or 164 private child placing agency requests the court to place the 165 child in a planned permanent living arrangement and if the court 166 finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that a planned 167 permanent living arrangement is in the best interest of the 168 child, that the child is sixteen years of age or older, and that 169
one of the following exists: 170

(a) The child, because of physical, mental, or 171 psychological problems or needs, is unable to function in a 172 family-like setting and must remain in residential or 173 institutional care now and for the foreseeable future beyond the 174 date of the dispositional hearing held pursuant to section 175
2151.35 of the Revised Code. 176

(b) ~~The child is sixteen years of age or older, the~~ 177 parents of the child have significant physical, mental, or 178 psychological problems and are unable to care for the child 179 because of those problems, adoption is not in the best interest 180 of the child, as determined in accordance with division (D) (1) 181 of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code, and the child retains a 182 significant and positive relationship with a parent or relative. 183

(c) ~~The child is sixteen years of age or older,~~ has been 184 counseled on the permanent placement options available to the 185 child, and is unwilling to accept or unable to adapt to a 186 permanent placement. 187

(6) Order the removal from the child's home until further 188 order of the court of the person who committed abuse as 189 described in section 2151.031 of the Revised Code against the 190 child, who caused or allowed the child to suffer neglect as 191 described in section 2151.03 of the Revised Code, or who is the 192 parent, guardian, or custodian of a child who is adjudicated a 193 dependent child and order any person not to have contact with 194 the child or the child's siblings. 195

(B) (1) When making a determination on whether to place a 196 child in a planned permanent living arrangement pursuant to 197 division (A) (5) (b) or (c) of this section, the court shall 198 consider all relevant information that has been presented to the 199 court, including information gathered from the child, the 200 child's guardian ad litem, and the public children services 201 agency or private child placing agency. 202

(2) A child who is placed in a planned permanent living 203 arrangement pursuant to division (A) (5) (b) or (c) of this 204 section shall be placed in an independent living setting or in a 205 family setting in which the caregiver has been provided by the 206 agency that has custody of the child with a notice that 207 addresses the following: 208

(a) The caregiver understands that the planned permanent 209 living arrangement is intended to be permanent in nature and 210 that the caregiver will provide a stable placement for the child 211 through the child's emancipation or until the court releases the 212 child from the custody of the agency, whichever occurs first. 213

(b) The caregiver is expected to actively participate in 214 the youth's independent living case plan, attend agency team 215 meetings and court hearings as appropriate, complete training, 216 as provided in division (B) of section 5103.035 of the Revised 217 Code, related to providing the child independent living 218 services, and assist in the child's transition into adulthood. 219

(3) The department of job and family services shall 220 develop a model notice to be provided by an agency that has 221 custody of a child to a caregiver under division (B) (2) of this 222 section. The agency may modify the model notice to apply to the 223 needs of the agency. 224

(C) No order for permanent custody or temporary custody of 225 a child or the placement of a child in a planned permanent 226 living arrangement shall be made pursuant to this section unless 227 the complaint alleging the abuse, neglect, or dependency 228 contains a prayer requesting permanent custody, temporary 229 custody, or the placement of the child in a planned permanent 230 living arrangement as desired, the summons served on the parents 231 of the child contains as is appropriate a full explanation that 232 the granting of an order for permanent custody permanently 233 divests them of their parental rights, a full explanation that 234 an adjudication that the child is an abused, neglected, or 235 dependent child may result in an order of temporary custody that 236 will cause the removal of the child from their legal custody 237 until the court terminates the order of temporary custody or 238 permanently divests the parents of their parental rights, or a 239 full explanation that the granting of an order for a planned 240 permanent living arrangement will result in the removal of the 241 child from their legal custody if any of the conditions listed 242 in divisions (A) (5) (a) to (c) of this section are found to 243 exist, and the summons served on the parents contains a full 244 explanation of their right to be represented by counsel and to 245 have counsel appointed pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised 246 Code if they are indigent. 247

If after making disposition as authorized by division (A) 248

(2) of this section, a motion is filed that requests permanent custody of the child, the court may grant permanent custody of the child to the movant in accordance with section 2151.414 of the Revised Code.

(D) If the court issues an order for protective supervision pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, the court may place any reasonable restrictions upon the child, the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, or any other person, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) Order a party, within forty-eight hours after the issuance of the order, to vacate the child's home indefinitely or for a specified period of time;

(2) Order a party, a parent of the child, or a physical custodian of the child to prevent any particular person from having contact with the child;

(3) Issue an order restraining or otherwise controlling the conduct of any person which conduct would not be in the best interest of the child.

(E) As part of its dispositional order, the court shall journalize a case plan for the child. The journalized case plan shall not be changed except as provided in section 2151.412 of the Revised Code.

(F)(1) The court shall retain jurisdiction over any child for whom the court issues an order of disposition pursuant to division (A) of this section or pursuant to section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code until the child attains the age of eighteen years if the child is not mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically impaired, the child attains the age of twenty-one years if the child is mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically impaired, or 278 the child is adopted and a final decree of adoption is issued, 279 except that the court may retain jurisdiction over the child and 280 continue any order of disposition under division (A) of this 281 section or under section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised 282 Code for a specified period of time to enable the child to 283 graduate from high school or vocational school. The court shall 284 retain jurisdiction over a person who meets the requirements 285 described in division (A) (1) of section 5101.1411 of the Revised 286 Code and who is subject to a voluntary participation agreement 287 that is in effect. The court shall make an entry continuing its 288 jurisdiction under this division in the journal. 289

(2) Any public children services agency, any private child 290 placing agency, the department of job and family services, or 291 any party, other than any parent whose parental rights with 292 respect to the child have been terminated pursuant to an order 293 issued under division (A) (4) of this section, by filing a motion 294 with the court, may at any time request the court to modify or 295 terminate any order of disposition issued pursuant to division 296
(A) of this section or section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the 297 Revised Code. The court shall hold a hearing upon the motion as 298 if the hearing were the original dispositional hearing and shall 299 give all parties to the action and the guardian ad litem notice 300 of the hearing pursuant to the Juvenile Rules. If applicable, 301 the court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code. 302

(G) Any temporary custody order issued pursuant to 303 division (A) of this section shall terminate one year after the 304 earlier of the date on which the complaint in the case was filed 305 or the child was first placed into shelter care, except that, 306 upon the filing of a motion pursuant to section 2151.415 of the 307 Revised Code, the temporary custody order shall continue and not 308 terminate until the court issues a dispositional order under 309 that section. In resolving the motion, the court shall not order 310 an existing temporary custody order to continue beyond two years 311 after the date on which the complaint was filed or the child was 312 first placed into shelter care, whichever date is earlier, 313 regardless of whether any extensions have been previously 314 ordered pursuant to division (D) of section 2151.415 of the 315

Revised Code. 316

(H) (1) No later than one year after the earlier of the 317 date the complaint in the case was filed or the child was first 318 placed in shelter care, a party may ask the court to extend an 319 order for protective supervision for six months or to terminate 320 the order. A party requesting extension or termination of the 321 order shall file a written request for the extension or 322 termination with the court and give notice of the proposed 323 extension or termination in writing before the end of the day 324 after the day of filing it to all parties and the child's 325 guardian ad litem. If a public children services agency or 326 private child placing agency requests termination of the order, 327 the agency shall file a written status report setting out the 328 facts supporting termination of the order at the time it files 329 the request with the court. If no party requests extension or 330 termination of the order, the court shall notify the parties 331 that the court will extend the order for six months or terminate 332 it and that it may do so without a hearing unless one of the 333 parties requests a hearing. All parties and the guardian ad 334 litem shall have seven days from the date a notice is sent 335 pursuant to this division to object to and request a hearing on 336 the proposed extension or termination. 337

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the 338 court shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty 339 days after the request is received by the court. The court shall 340 give notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to 341 all parties and the guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the court 342 shall determine whether extension or termination of the order is 343 in the child's best interest. If termination is in the child's 344 best interest, the court shall terminate the order. If extension 345 is in the child's best interest, the court shall extend the 346 order for six months. 347

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 348 the court may extend the order for six months or terminate it 349 without a hearing and shall journalize the order of extension or 350 termination not later than fourteen days after receiving the 351 request for extension or termination or after the date the court 352 notifies the parties that it will extend or terminate the order. 353
If the court does not extend or terminate the order, it shall 354 schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days after 355 the expiration of the applicable fourteen-day time period and 356
give notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to 357
all parties and the child's guardian ad litem. At the hearing, 358 the court shall determine whether extension or termination of 359 the order is in the child's best interest. If termination is in 360 the child's best interest, the court shall terminate the order. 361
If extension is in the child's best interest, the court shall 362 issue an order extending the order for protective supervision 363 six months. 364

(2) If the court grants an extension of the order for 365 protective supervision pursuant to division (H)(1) of this 366 section, a party may, prior to termination of the extension, 367 file with the court a request for an additional extension of six 368 months or for termination of the order. The court and the 369 parties shall comply with division (H)(1) of this section with 370 respect to extending or terminating the order. 371

(3) If a court grants an extension pursuant to division 372
(H) (2) of this section, the court shall terminate the order for 373 protective supervision at the end of the extension. 374

(I) The court shall not issue a dispositional order 375 pursuant to division (A) of this section that removes a child 376 from the child's home unless the court complies with section 377 2151.419 of the Revised Code and includes in the dispositional 378 order the findings of fact required by that section. 379

(J) If a motion or application for an order described in 380 division (A) (6) of this section is made, the court shall not 381 issue the order unless, prior to the issuance of the order, it 382 provides to the person all of the following: 383

(1) Notice and a copy of the motion or application; 384

(2) The grounds for the motion or application; 385

(3) An opportunity to present evidence and witnesses at a 386 hearing regarding the motion or application; 387

(4) An opportunity to be represented by counsel at the 388 hearing. 389

(K) The jurisdiction of the court shall terminate one year 390
after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further 391 action in the matter subsequent to the award, the date of the 392 latest further action subsequent to the award, if the court 393 awards legal custody of a child to either of the following: 394

(1) A legal custodian who, at the time of the award of 395 legal custody, resides in a county of this state other than the 396 county in which the court is located; 397

(2) A legal custodian who resides in the county in which 398 the court is located at the time of the award of legal custody, 399 but moves to a different county of this state prior to one year 400
after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further 401 action in the matter subsequent to the award, one year after the 402 date of the latest further action subsequent to the award. 403

The court in the county in which the legal custodian 404 resides then shall have jurisdiction in the matter. 405

Sec. 2151.415. (A) Except for cases in which a motion for 406 permanent custody described in division (D)(1) of section 407 2151.413 of the Revised Code is required to be made, a public 408 children services agency or private child placing agency that 409 has been given temporary custody of a child pursuant to section 410 2151.353 of the Revised Code, not later than thirty days prior 411 to the earlier of the date for the termination of the custody 412 order pursuant to division (H) of section 2151.353 of the 413 Revised Code or the date set at the dispositional hearing for 414 the hearing to be held pursuant to this section, shall file a 415 motion with the court that issued the order of disposition 416 requesting that any of the following orders of disposition of 417 the child be issued by the court: 418

(1) An order that the child be returned home and the 419 custody of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian without 420 any restrictions; 421

(2) An order for protective supervision; 422

(3) An order that the child be placed in the legal custody 423 of a relative or other interested individual; 424

(4) An order permanently terminating the parental rights 425 of the child's parents; 426

(5) An order that the child be placed in a planned 427 permanent living arrangement; 428

(6) In accordance with division (D) of this section, an 429 order for the extension of temporary custody. 430

(B) Upon the filing of a motion pursuant to division (A) 431 of this section, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing on 432 the date set at the dispositional hearing held pursuant to 433 section 2151.35 of the Revised Code, with notice to all parties 434 to the action in accordance with the Juvenile Rules. After the 435 dispositional hearing or at a date after the dispositional 436 hearing that is not later than one year after the earlier of the 437 date on which the complaint in the case was filed or the child 438 was first placed into shelter care, the court, in accordance 439 with the best interest of the child as supported by the evidence 440 presented at the dispositional hearing, shall issue an order of 441 disposition as set forth in division (A) of this section, except 442 that all orders for permanent custody shall be made in 443 accordance with sections 2151.413 and 2151.414 of the Revised 444 Code. In issuing an order of disposition under this section, the 445 court shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code. 446

(C) (1) If an agency pursuant to division (A) of this 447 section requests the court to place a child into a planned 448 permanent living arrangement, the agency shall present evidence 449 to indicate why a planned permanent living arrangement is 450 appropriate for the child, including, but not limited to, 451 evidence that the agency has tried or considered all other 452 possible dispositions for the child. A court shall not place a 453 child in a planned permanent living arrangement, unless it 454 finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that a planned 455

child, ~~that the child is sixteen years of age or older,~~ and that 457
one of the following exists: 458

additional period pursuant to this division, upon request it 539 shall issue findings of fact. 540

(3) Prior to the end of the extension of a temporary 541 custody order granted pursuant to division (D)(2) of this 542 section, the agency that received the extension shall file a 543 motion with the court requesting the issuance of one of the 544 orders of disposition set forth in divisions (A)(1) to (5) of 545 this section. Upon the filing of the motion by the agency or, if 546 child is extended pursuant to division (F) of section 2151.353 570

of the Revised Code. 571

(F) The court, on its own motion or the motion of the 572 agency or person with legal custody of the child, the child's 573 guardian ad litem, or any other party to the action, may conduct 574 of the removal and of the reasons why the removal is necessary 598 to protect the child from physical or emotional harm immediately 599 after the removal of the child from the prior setting. 600
