in that division, the court in its discretion may choose not to 455 impose the suspension, revocation, or denial required in that 456 division, but the court, in its discretion, instead may require 457 the offender to perform community service for a number of hours 458 determined by the court. 459

(G) As used in this section, "object that is 460

Sec. 2923.50. (A) For purposes of this section: 527

"Violent felony offense" has the same meaning as in 528 section 2923.132 of the Revised Code. 529

"Law-abiding citizen" means a person who is not otherwise 530 precluded under state law from possessing a firearm and shall 531 allowing others to make use of lodging, communications equipment 537 or services including social media accounts, facilities, 538 weapons, personnel, transportation, clothing, or other physical 539

(C) No public office, public officer, or employee of the 561 hearing on the motion for temporary restraining order and 582 preliminary injunction within thirty days of service of the 583 petition. In such actions, notwithstanding anything to the 584 contrary in Chapters 2743. and 2744. of the Revised Code, the 585 court may award the prevailing party, other than the state of 586 Ohio or any political subdivision of the state, reasonable 587 attorney's fees and costs. 588

(F) (1) If the state or any political subdivision of the 589 state knowingly employs an individual who is acting as or 590 previously acted as an official, agent, employee, or deputy of 591 the government of the United States, or otherwise acting under 592 the color of federal law within the borders of this state, and 593 who knowingly does either of the following after the effective 594 date of this section, the state or political subdivision shall 595 be subject to a civil penalty of fifty thousand dollars per 596 employee hired by the state or political subdivision who 597 violates the applicable provision: 598

(a) Enforces, attempts to enforce, or participates in any way in the enforcement or implementation of any federal acts, laws, executive orders, rules, regulations, statutes, or ordinances regarding firearms, firearm accessories, or ammunition; 599
600

The court shall hold a hearing on the motion for temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction within thirty days of service of the petition. 613
614
615
616
617
618
619
620
621
622

(G) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit public officers or employees of the state or a political subdivision of the state from requesting or accepting aid from federal officials in an effort to enforce laws of the state or of a political subdivision for either of the following: 623
624
626
627

(1) Referring firearm cases to any United States attorney 628 for potential prosecution if such case is a violent felony 629 offense and if that prosecution would entail prosecution of 630 violations substantially similar to those found in Chapters 631 2901. to 2911. of the Revised Code involving the use of a 632 weapon, provided that such weapons violations are merely 633 ancillary to that prosecution. 634

(2) Participating with federal law enforcement to enforce 635 laws of the state or a political subdivision in any national 636 integrated ballistic information network investigation or lead, 637 or distributing such leads, whether or not through a crime gun 638 intelligence center. 639

(H) It shall not be considered a violation of this section 640 to provide material aid to federal officials who are in pursuit 641 of a suspect when there is a demonstrable criminal nexus with 642 another state or country and such suspect is either not a 643 citizen of this state or is not present in this state. 644

(I) It shall not be considered a violation of this section 645 to provide material aid to federal prosecutions for either of 646 the following: 647

(1) Felony crimes against a person when such prosecution 648 includes weapons violations substantially similar to those found 649 in sections 2923.11 to 2923.25 of the Revised Code, so long as 650 such weapons violations are merely ancillary to such 651 prosecution; 652

(2) Class A or class B felony violations, as designated 653 under federal law, substantially similar to those found in 654 Chapter 2925. of the Revised Code when such prosecution includes 655 weapons violations substantially similar to those found in 656 sections 2923.11 to 2923.25 of the Revised Code, so long as such 657 weapons violations are merely ancillary to such prosecution. 658

(J) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit 659 a public officer or employee of the state or a political 660 subdivision from participating in an inter-jurisdictional task 661 force for the purpose of enforcing laws not related to firearms, 662 firearm accessories, or ammunition. 663

(K) (1) As specified in section 1.50 of the Revised Code, 664 if any provision of a section of the Revised Code or the 665 application thereof to any person or circumstance is held 666 invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or 667 applications of the section or related sections which can be 668 given effect without the invalid provision or application, and 669 to this end the provisions are severable. 670

(2) Section 2923.50 of the Revised Code shall be strictly 671 construed against the state and shall be liberally construed in 672 favor of the rights of law-abiding citizens. 673

(L) The general assembly of the state of Ohio finds and 674 declares that: 675

(1) The general assembly of the state of Ohio is firmly 676 resolved to support and defend the Constitution of the United 677 States against every aggression, whether foreign or domestic, 678 and is duty-bound to oppose every infraction of those principles 679 that constitute the basis of the union of the states because 680 only a faithful observance of those principles can secure the 681 union's existence and the public happiness. 682

(2) Acting through the Constitution of the United States, 683 the people of the several states created the federal government 684 to be their agent in the exercise of a few defined powers, while 685 reserving for the state governments the power to legislate on 686 matters concerning the lives, liberties, and properties of 687 citizens in the ordinary course of affairs. 688

(3) The limitation of the federal government's power is 689 affirmed under the Tenth Amendment to the United States 690 Constitution, which defines the total scope of federal powers as 691 being those which have been delegated by the people of the 692 several states to the federal government, and all powers not 693 delegated to the federal government in the Constitution of the 694 United States are reserved to the states respectively or the 695 people themselves. 696

(4) If the federal government assumes powers that the 697 people did not grant it in the Constitution of the United 698 States, its acts are unauthoritative and of no force. 699

(5) The several states of the United States respect the 700 proper role of the federal government but reject the proposition 701 that such respect requires unlimited submission. If the federal 702 government, created by a compact among the states, were the 703 exclusive or final judge of the extent of the powers granted to 704 it by the states through the Constitution of the United States, 705 the federal government's discretion, and not the Constitution of 706 the United States, would necessarily become the measure of those 707 powers. To the contrary, as in all other cases of compacts among 708 powers having no common judge, each party has an equal right to 709 judge for itself as to whether infractions of the compact have 710 occurred, as well as to determine the mode and measure of 711 redress. Although the several states have granted supremacy to 712 laws and treaties made under the powers granted in the 713 Constitution of the United States, such supremacy does not 714 extend to various federal statutes, executive orders, 715 administrative orders, court orders, rules, regulations, or 716 other actions that collect data or restrict or prohibit the 717 manufacture, ownership, and use of firearms, firearm 718 accessories, or ammunition exclusively within the borders of 719 Ohio; such statutes, executive orders, administrative orders, 720 court orders, rules, regulations, and other actions exceed the 721 powers granted to the federal government except to the extent 722 they are necessary and proper for governing and regulating the 723 United States armed forces or for organizing, arming, and 724 disciplining militia forces actively employed in the service of 725 the United States armed forces. 726

(6) The people of the several states have given congress 727 the power "to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among 728 the several states," but "regulating commerce" does not include 729 the power to limit citizens' right to keep and bear arms in 730 defense of their families, neighbors, persons, or property nor 731 to dictate what sort of arms and accessories law-abiding 732 citizens may buy, sell, exchange, or otherwise possess within 733 the borders of this state. 734

(7) The people of the several states also have granted 735 congress the power "to lay and collect taxes, duties, imports, 736 and excises, to pay the debts, and provide for the common 737 defense and general welfare of the United States" and "to make 738 all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into 739 execution the powers vested by the Constitution of the United 740 States in the government of the United States, or in any 741 department or office thereof." These constitutional provisions 742 merely identify the means by which the federal government may 743 execute its limited powers and shall not be construed to grant 744 unlimited power because to do so would be to destroy the 745 carefully constructed equilibrium between the federal and state 746 governments. Consequently, the general assembly rejects any 747 claim that the taxing and spending powers of congress may be 748 used to diminish in any way the right of the people to keep and 749 bear arms. 750

(8) The general assembly of the state of Ohio finds that 751 the federal excise tax rate on arms and ammunition in effect 752 before January 1, 2021, which funds programs under the Wildlife 753 Restoration Act, does not have a chilling effect on the purchase 754 or ownership of such arms and ammunition. 755

(9) The people of Ohio have vested the general assembly 756 with the authority to regulate the manufacture, possession, 757 exchange, and use of firearms within the borders of this state, 758 subject only to the limits imposed by the Second Amendment to 759 the United States Constitution and the Constitution of Ohio. 760

(10) The general assembly of the state of Ohio strongly 761 promotes responsible gun ownership, including parental 762 supervision of minors in the proper use, storage, and ownership 763 of all firearms; the prompt reporting of stolen firearms; and 764 the proper enforcement of all state gun laws. The general 765 assembly of the state of Ohio hereby condemns any unlawful 766 transfer of firearms and the use of any firearm in any criminal 767 or unlawful activity. 768

Section 2. That existing sections 2923.11, 2923.111, 769
2923.122, and 2923.17 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 770

Section 3. This act shall be known as the Second Amendment 771 Preservation Act. 772
