

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2385

To require certain large companies to submit to an independent annual audit of their supply chains to verify that their supply chains are free of child and forced labor.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 15, 2015

Mr. VARGAS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce

A BILL

To require certain large companies to submit to an independent annual audit of their supply chains to verify that their supply chains are free of child and forced labor.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Stop Blood Tomatoes
5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. AUDIT OF SUPPLY CHAIN REQUIRED.

7 (a) REQUIRED AUDIT.—Each public or private com-
8 pany that produces or sells products in interstate com-

1 merce that has gross annual revenues in excess of 2 $1,000,000,000 shall annually submit to an audit of its 3 supply chains by an independent auditor for the purpose
4 of determining if such company's supply chains are free
5 of child labor and forced labor.

6 (b) TIMING OF AUDIT.—The audit required by sub-7 section (a) shall be conducted during the first quarter of 8 the company's fiscal year and shall be a complete audit 9 of the companies supply chains during the previous fiscal 10 year.

11 (c) DETERMINATION BY AUDITOR.—In addition to 12 any specific information regarding a company's supply
13 chain, the independent auditor shall make a determination 14 in each audit that—

15 (1) the company's products are produced with-16 out the use of child labor or forced labor; or

17 (2) if the independent auditor cannot be certain 18 that child labor or forced labor was used, that the 19 company's products may have been produced with 20 the use of child labor or forced labor.

21 (d) REPORTING OF AUDIT DETERMINATION.—Each
22 company required to submit to an audit under this section
23 shall, within 60 days of the completion of the audit—

1 (1) report the determination made pursuant to 2 subsection (e) to the Department of Labor and the 3 Securities and Exchange Commission; and

4 (2) post a clear and conspicuous notice on the 5 primary homepage of the company’s Internet
6 website, based on such determination, that states ei-
7 ther of the following:

8 (A) “Products are free of child labor and 9 forced labor.”.

10 (B) “Products may have been produced
11 using child labor or forced labor.”.

12 (e) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this Act and for pur-
13 poses of the audit required under this Act—

14 (1) the term “child labor” means any labor 15 practice relating to work performed by a minor in 16 violation of national and international standards, in-
17 cluding International Labor Organization Conven-
18 tion No. 182;

19 (2) the term “forced labor” means any forced 20 labor practice in violation of national and inter-
21 national standards, including International Labor
22 Organization Convention No. 29;

23 (3) the term “independent auditor” means an 24 entity that is unrelated to and fully independent of 25 any company for which it performs audit services re-

1 quired by this Act that has demonstrated experience
2 with examining international supply chains and fa-
3 miliarity with international labor standards;

4 (4) the term “product” includes a manufac-
5 tured product, agricultural commodity, and oil, nat-
6 ural gas, and minerals; and

7 (5) the term “supply chain” means all labor re-8 cruiters, suppliers of products, component parts of 9 products, and raw materials used by a company and 10 its subsidiary and suppliers in the manufacturing of 11 such company’s products, whether or not such com-
12 pany has a direct relationship with the supplier.
